

Colouring page rotifer

Philodina roseola is a rotifer. Its name comes from the two wheel-shaped crowns of cilia on its head. By rotating the cilia, this microbe can swim and suck food into its mouth. But he doesn't always swim. It can also crawl over a water plant or the bottom of the ditch like a caterpillar.

Take care of each other, see you soon

ARTIS MICROPIA